Ways God May Work

In Your Life During This Journey

1- God may prompt your heart to give a certain amount:

Exodus 35:2 I says that "Everyone who was willing and whose heart moved him came and brought an offering to the LORD for the work."

You may discover that God will begin to put a desire in your "heart" to give a certain dollar amount that is much bigger than your "mind" can at first understand. If this happens, begin to pray about this specific amount. If you're married to a Christian, feel free to pray separately for several days or a week, and then come back together to see if God is speaking to both of you about "how much" you should indicate for your faith promise. If God is calling you to make a specific faith promise, He will show you (in your mind) or enable you (through surprise or unexpected provisions over time) to fulfill this commitment.

2 - God may show you items you no longer need or are tired of carrying:

In Exodus 35:5, God told the Israelites "From what you have, take an offering for the LORD." They had been carrying their stuff in the wilderness for a long time. When the opportunity came to lighten their load and give from what they had to a God-sized project, they joyfully gave of their possessions to accomplish God's will.

3 - God may surprise you with unexpected resources:

Isaiah 45:3 talks about God providing "treasures of darkness and riches stored in secret places". If God leads you to make a faith promise over a 1-year period, during this time "watch for" unexpected resources to come into your life that you can use to fulfill your God-led faith promise.

4 - God may show you it is not about what "you" can do, but what "He" can do through you: In this journey, we are not asking people, "What can you do (on your own) to help?" But rather, "Will you please take 40 days and seek God for what He wants to do through you." If we pool our resources from what "we can do", very little will be accomplished. But if we "pool the resources that God wants to provide through us", there is no limit to the generosity God may choose to flow through our individual lives and entire congregation.
